

CO-OPERATION means concert for the diffusion of information. It leaves nobody out who helps to produce it; it touches many places at once; it seeks parallel channels; it causes disturbance; it contemplates it submits to orders; it accepts gifts and asks favors; it keeps to a strict schedule and breaks no faith with the regular program; it means semi-permanence, dependence and that share of the communication which quality may earn, or quantity can win